Collect

Almighty God, whose Son revealed in signs and miracles the wonder of your saving presence: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your mighty power; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion

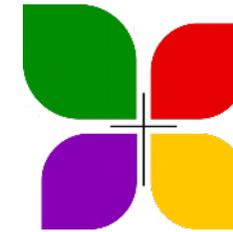

Almighty Father, whose Son our Saviour Jesus Christ is the light of the world: may your people, illumined by your word and sacraments, shine with the radiance of his glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Taizé this evening

Join us at 6 this evening for a quiet and contemplative service.

Taizé takes its origin from a monastic community founded by Brother Roger in Southern France, who recognised the value of periods of stillness for prayer and unifying music.

Sponsor Katie!

Thank you to everyone who gave last Sunday when Katie told us about Chiltern Music Therapy, a not-for-profit organisation which provides music therapy to people of all ages in this area. Donations totalled £188. Katie is running in the Windsor Winter 10k today to raise money for CMT: you can sponsor her at www.localgiving.org/fundraising/katieandemily10k/

Christmas Collections

Thank you to everyone who gave over Christmas. We are sharing the total of £3167 among four charities:

The Hope School in Bethlehem where our gift can make a huge difference to the Palestinian youngsters who have very little hope in their lives.

Embrace the local charity that is making an impact in education, health and community development in the Middle East.

Road Farm enables the benefits of being on a working farm to be shared with groups like Rotary, Young Farmers, Scouts, Guides and Schools.

Missenden Walled Garden provides day support for people with disabilities or mental health issues.

Can you help Road Farm?

Road Farm is looking for volunteer helpers, particularly to drive people to and from the farm for their therapy sessions. If you'd like to help or know more, speak to Val or Ken or Wendy in the office.

Chiltern Arts Festival Concert

The second Chiltern Arts Festival runs from 9th to 16th February with concerts around the Chilterns. Steven Osborne, one of Britain's most treasured pianists, is coming to St Peter & St Paul on Monday 11th February with a beautiful programme of Schubert, Debussy and Prokofiev. Tickets are £25 with £20 tickets for under 25s and premium tickets in the front of the centre at £35. More information of this and the other concerts on the Chiltern Arts web site www.chilternarts.com

Ballinger Coffee Morning - TOMORROW!

10am till 12 noon at St Mary's. Usborne books, cakes (and we need donations of these) books and a couple of other small stalls. There's a secondhand jewellery stall, if anyone has any to donate please leave it at St Mary's or contact Maggi on 864 790. We hope to see as many people as possible.

Sunday evenings

Choral Evensong will be on 3rd February, which is Candlemas, rather than on 27th January, which will be normal Evensong.

Jam jars for the Friends

Vivienne has 19 Kilos of Seville oranges and needs lots more jam jars to make marmalade. Please bring them to Church or leave at her house.

If you were alive then, please make a note of your memories and send it to Jennifer at 3 Old Town Farm, HP16 9PA or email it to jennifermoss@tiscali.co.uk.

Schoolreaders

We've been approached by this charity which provides volunteers to listen to children read in primary schools. Would you like to help? See the poster in Church or look at their web site www.schoolreaders.org.
