

Dear Friends,

8th April

There is no doubt this will be an Easter to remember. Whatever we write here will be out of date almost immediately and it can feel as if nothing is certain. Yet the sun will continue to rise and the vibrant green new leaves will unfurl and the bursts of extravagant blossom will bloom. We have all found the glory of God revealed in this spring very special and strengthening. It helps us to grasp the profound message of Easter. The message of hope and rebirth that is woven into the fabric of our world. Holy Week has a special resonance of course. There is a palpable weariness as we continue to walk into uncertainty, and yes, there is death in the air. Easter Sunday gives us a reality check. Whatever the time scale resurrection is coming and the Lord is good and faithful and we are right to celebrate the purest joy of Christ risen. Alleluia!
