

20th August 2020

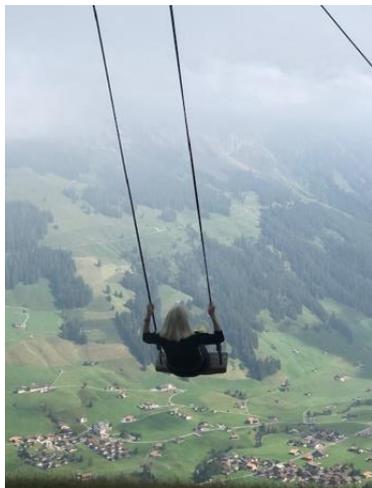

Dear Friends

It feels as if summer is nearly done. How did that happen? It is interesting how the weather has become part of our pandemic story. Even people who love the hot sunshine found the 35C heat challenging and for some people very uncomfortable indeed. Since then we have had dramatic thunderstorms, rainbows and even flooding. British weather used to be boring, but no longer!

May I warmly recommend a retreat at home. These days are very good soul food. You can dip in and out if you wish and there is excellent input.

Quiet Day at Home – Save the Date

At Los Olivos Retreats we are currently working on our next online retreat, “The Road Less Travelled: Walking the Path of Love”, which will be on Saturday 12th September 2020. Please, save the date and it would be very helpful for us if you could register your interest in participating by clicking here. You will then receive the invitation to the online retreat and more information a few days before the event.

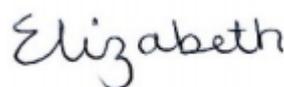

Elizabeth is having a break this week but will be back for Sunday worship.

I spent some time home in Switzerland and specially enjoyed this swing. It's probably not for you if you suffer from vertigo!

This Sunday our 'live' service will be outside Communion at 11.00am. Please bring a seat if you can.

Our usual pattern of worship, prayer and activity continues including 8am, 10am and 6pm Sunday services livestreamed at www.facebook.com/greatmissendenchurch and the option of phoning in to listen to audio only by contacting David Harris on 01494 868 237. Do get in touch if you'd like a chat, a prayer or help. We will write again soon.
