'When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come.'

John 16.13

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion

Almighty and eternal God, you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and live and reign in the perfect unity of love: hold us firm in this faith, that we may know you in all your ways and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory, who are three Persons yet one God, now and for ever.

News and Events

The Vicar writes...

We have to mine scripture rather for signs of the Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit together. In this extract from the 'Farewell Discourses', where Jesus talks of the Holy Spirit, we find one of those jewels. Happily, the principal facet in the jewel is the Spirit, so often the Cinderella of the Trinity. The coming Spirit 'will guide you into all truth', Jesus says. This surely describes the work of the Spirit in the life of the Church ever since. We are on a journey, a pilgrimage, into the truth of things: not least in how we understand the Trinity.

Annual Parochial Church Meeting (APCM) and the Meeting of Parishioners. Our APCM will take place this Wednesday, 18th June, 7.30pm at St Peter and St Paul. All are welcome to attend.

Cream Teas will be accompanied by music from Mill End Voices this week.

Music Sunday is coming up on 22 June when we celebrate the role music has to play in our worship. There will be a special collection to support the work of the Royal School of Church Music, with which we are affiliated: 'I will sing with the spirit and with the understanding also.'

Eco Tip for June. One of A Rocha UK's firm beliefs is that we are more likely to nurture God's creation if we spend more time enjoying it. Joining in with wider initiatives also reminds us of the power and encouragement of being part of communities and taking action together. Churches Count on Nature, 30 Days Wild and the Great Big Green Week all take place in June. Join an awareness-raising event or nature count as an individual, with your household or church. Old Tea Warehouse. One of the regular contributors to the Old Tea Warehouse monthly rota has decided to step back from the commitment and so we are looking for someone – or a couple – who might be willing to fill the gap. I know that there are some very generous members of the congregation who will immediately offer to go on the rota twice in the year but I would much prefer it if someone who isn't contributing and who feels that they would like to make this very worthwhile contribution, could make themselves known to me. This is not an onerous task and if someone likes the idea but isn't physically able to do the shopping, there are others, as well as myself, who are more than happy to do it on their behalf. I would be so grateful to hear from you if you feel that you might be able to take on this commitment for the month of June, alongside the two other contributors. Mobile: 07879 427370; email: karen.e.butler@btinternet.com. Thank you. Karen.
